

Financial issues

Who is funding us?

The activities of the independent investigative agency "Investigation.Info" are financed by several donor organizations, crowdfunding campaigns and donations of concerned citizens.

Who are our grantees?

In 2020, we received grant funds from five donor organizations, namely:

- Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark (DANIDA)
- Department of Press, Education and Culture of the U.S. Embassy in Ukraine
- International Renaissance Foundation
- Internews Network
- Journalism Development Network (JDN) is a non-profit journalistic organization dedicated to the development of investigative journalism. JDN programs operate in Europe, Eurasia, Latin America and the Middle East.

The first crowdfunding campaign

In 2020, we conducted our first crowdfunding campaign at Spilnokosht, where we raised UAH 46,980 for the continuation of the Pravosilya project. Investigation from behind bars."

Thanks to the financial support of concerned citizens, we continued to expose abuses, corruption and human rights violations in Ukrainian prisons.

Within the framework of this project, we published 6 texts – five investigations and interviews with Deputy Minister of Justice Olena Vysotska.

Each of the materials we published had consequences: from wide distribution of media and specialized organizations to violation of proceedings and searches of defendants.

The most valuable resource is our audience.

Another source of filling our budget is financial assistance from benefactors through the payment form on the website "Investigation.Info" and the Patreon platform. In the first half of 2020, UAH 55,708 was donated to the agency's activities.

In the future, we have high hopes for the support of the audience. It was the desire to move towards building close and trusting relationships with readers and viewers that led to the creation of the "Investigation Club".
